Secretarial Course at Harbor JC

A new Intensive Secretarial Training course will be offered at Harbor Junior College beginning with the Fall semester, according to an announcement by Dr. John Allan Smith, Administrative Dean.

This course is designed to qualify students for office employment upon completion of a twenty-week training program. This special speed-up course will give students training in typing, shorthand office machines, office methods, receptionist techniques, and secretarial training. The class will meet five hours daily and is planned to produce office skills that will qualify the student for immediate employment.

If upon completion of this course a student wishes to continue his education and obtain the Associate in Arts degree in the field of Secretarial Science, all credits earned in this intensive course will be transferred to his new program.

The course will be taught by Mr. Jack Brown, Instructor in Business Education at Harbor Junior College. Mr. Brown was formerly Service Manager for the May Co. in Los Angeles and was Education Instructor at Woodbury College before coming to Harbor.

Registration for this and all courses at Harbor will take place on the Campus at 1111 Figueroa Street in Wilmington beginning Monday, September 11, at 8:00 a.m.

Adult Classes Offered At Halldale School

Mrs. E. N. Reese, Parent Education Chairman for Halldale P.T.A. announced that two Adult Education classes will be held weekly at the Halldale school.

A Consumer Education class will be held each Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Halldale school. Mrs. L. A. Stump will conduct the class, which promises to be of great interest to all parents.

The class will cover a great many subjects relating to the home and family, and is also a credit class for those wishing to apply it towards receiving a high school diploma. Mrs. Reese invites all parents to attend this interesting class.

For those interested in singing, a Women's Chorus and Voice class will be held each Wednesday evening, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., at the Halldale school.

This class will be under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Adams, music teacher at Halldale school. The Halldale P.T.A. Mothersingers will be incorporated in this class.

X-Ray Project Discussed At Meeting Today

The Mobile Chest X-ray Unit Project being sponsored by the Shoestring Assn. and the Halldale P.T.A. will be discussed at the next meeting of the Shoestring Assn., to convene Tuesday, September 26, 7:30 p.m. at the Carson Streets, Torrance.

A report of the Region 16 meeting attended by the project committee will be given. A cordial invitation is extended to all those living in the Strip to attend the meeting.

Scott Speaks To Harbor City PTA

HARBOR CITY—The first meeting of the Harbor City P.T.A. was held Thursday evening, Sept. 14, at 7:30. Mrs. William Tregarthen, president, introduced Winston Scott, school principal.

Scott told of the importance of parent-teacher contact. He then Mrs. Tregarthen then introduced the board members, followed by a money making skit "A kidnap breakfast" by members of the P.T.A. Mrs. Zella Butterfield rendered a vocal solo accompanied by Mrs. Ethyl Ericson. Richard Rosendal, men's membership, gave a brief talk on fathers belonging to P.T.A. as well as mothers.

Apple pie and coffee were served by the Board Members at the conclusion of the meeting.

Hospital Dorm Price Upped

It has been voted by the board of supervisors to allot a supplemental contract of $219 to Carter-Mack Company, builders for the construction of a medical dormitory at Harbor General Hospital.

This additional sum was added to the original contract of approximately $25,000 due to price increases after the contract was first awarded.

The dormitory will house doctors who are attached to the hospital. It contains 12 rooms and a lobby. This is the first of a series of such buildings to be erected here.

14 Evening Trade Courses At Harbor JC

Fourteen evening school trade courses are being offered at Harbor Junior College this semester for adults interested in preparing for employment in established or expanding defense industries in the Harbor area. Raymond J. Casey, director, announced today.

Registration for the courses, which are tuition free to legal residents of California who are 18 years of age, or are high school graduates; can be completed in the class themselves, which meet from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Trade courses being offered include Navigation, Instrumentation and Control, Personnel Management, Slide Rule, Machine Shop, Petroleum Refining, Calculating Machine Practice, Police Science, Radio Fundamentals, School Correspondence, School Office Procedures, School Accounting, and Typewriting.

Eight academic type courses are also being offered, according to Mr. Harold McCarty, coordinator of the evening school program. The academic courses include Life Drawing, Home Decorating and Furnishing, Contemporary American Drama, History of the United States, Beginning Orchestra, Elementary Life Science, Child Psychology, and Elements of Speech.

Speech Classes For Adults

San Pedro Evening High School is now offering Harbor and Peninsula residents a chance to develop forceful expression from the platform, on the stage, or over the air.

Those who wish to acquire a smooth radio technique or take part in a telecast may enroll in the Radio Workshop that meets on Monday nights from 6:30 to 9:30 in Room 127 with Mr. Morton Miller, instructor. A series of radio shows and television programs is planned for the coming year. You may be the next star born!

For those who dread the moment when they must preside over a meeting or deliver a few words before a gathering larger than one man's family a class in Public Speaking will meet on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9:30 in Room 232 with Mr. Robert Rivera, instructor. Members of Mr. Rivera's spring class will testify that the course develops "live" speakers from the most timid, with never a dull moment.

Folks tired of a routine life at the wheel of daily labor can find a change of pace in Mr. William Carnahan's Drama Workshop in Room 232 on Friday nights from 7 to 10. Several plays are scheduled for this season. Anyone desiring to develop dramatic ability, with or without past training, should drop in on Mr. Carnahan.

All of these courses are offered free of tuition charges. None of them require any previous experience. Each one is starting a new school year this week. Registration may be made right at the classroom on meeting nights.

Fire Dept. to Get New Hose

Approved by the Torrance City Council at its last meeting, on the recommendation of City Manager George Stevens was an appropriation of $1,100 plus tax for the purchase of 1000 feet of 1 1/2 inch fire hose.

Other approved appropriations were $998.89 for paving of a portion of the City Yard; $596.48 for the purchase of rock and oil for paving a portion of Newton Street from Tandem Way to Winlock Drive, (from County Gas Tax funds); $2,839.50 for the purchase of materials used in the improvement of 171st Street from Yukon Avenue to Gelburn Avenue; and $460 for the payment to Barclay Surveying Company for surveying services.
